Supposedly, April showers bring May flowers. But since this year's winter produced so much rain and some very mild days, the buds are already blooming. This month we look forward to warmer temperatures and some sun-filled days. April brings us Tax Day on the 15th, the beginning of Passover on the 22nd and of course the baseball season gets into full swing. Here, outdoor activities start to open.

The following is taken from previous articles I wrote for the Gazette. We have many new homeowners and I thought it was a good time to repeat this information.

“Managing an HOA is a highly complex undertaking. It involves the intricacies of a sophisticated property management system tethered to an understanding of human behavior that would cause a seasoned diplomat’s head to spin. Whether the members appreciate it or not should not be the primary objective. The greatest thanks is effectively protecting and enhancing the HOA assets with thoughtful planning and execution.”

If you serve on an HOA board, you are charged with handling business in a business-like way. The Board has the fiduciary duty to protect the interests of all owners, current and future. Board members can fall into the trap of self-serving governance by making decisions based on their own personal interests or the interests of their friends or neighbors. Board members should not make decisions based on what’s least likely to create conflict or controversy or what is expedient or easy. The focus for any board member, after well-reasoned and researched findings, should be what is best for the community. Decisions based on what is best for the community will irritate some residents and delight others.

Enjoy the month!

All About....April Fools' Day

by Mary J. Collins

"The first of April is the day we remember what we are the other 364 days of the year."

(Mark Twain)

Ever wonder where April Fools' Day came from? Surprise! The joke's on you. Nobody seems to know its true origins. However, historians do have some clues!

Some historians speculate that April Fools' Day dates back to 1582, when France switched from the Julian calendar to the Gregorian calendar. In the Julian Calendar, as in the Hindu calendar, the new year began with the spring equinox around April 1. People who were slow to get the news or failed to recognize that the start of the new year had moved to January 1, and continued to celebrate it during the last week of March through April 1, became the butt of jokes and hoaxes and were called "April fools." These pranks included having paper fish placed on their backs and being referred to as "poisson d'avril" (April fish), said to symbolize a young, easily caught fish and a gullible person.

Historians have also linked April Fools' Day to festivals such as Hilaria (Latin for joyful), which was celebrated in ancient Rome at the end of March by followers of the cult of Cybele. It involved people dressing up in disguises and mocking fellow citizens and even magistrates, and it was said to be inspired by the Egyptian legend of Isis, Osiris and Seth.

There's also speculation that April Fools' Day was tied to the vernal equinox, or first day of spring in the Northern Hemisphere, when Mother Nature fooled people with changing, unpredictable weather.

The tradition of celebrating April Fools' Day has evolved over the years with modern forms of media upping the ante on pranks and tricks. Newspapers, radio, TV stations and websites have all participated in the tradition, making April 1 a day where everyone truly needs to be on their guard.

Although we may never know its true origins, April 1 has come to represent a day of joy and comedy as we move out of the darkness of winter and into the spring.

"Fool me once, shame on you; fool me twice, shame on me."

(Chinese proverb)

BOOK NOTES

YOUR BRAIN ON ART

by Susan Magsamen and Ivy Ross

The pleasure we get from art, Susan Magsamen and Ivy Ross report, comes from the same reward system in the brain that lights up for love, sex, food and being out in nature.

In Your Brain on Art: How the Arts Transform Us (2023, Neuro Arts), they explain what's going on at the cellular level when we look at, appreciate or create art, including the performing arts.

The arts are strong sensory inputs, Magsamen and Ross say. They "allow us to process emotions, name and express our feelings and even work on accessing the unconscious psyche."

Art biologically changes us, the authors explain, through the release of neurochemicals, hormones and endorphins.

In 2017, a team of psychologists, biologists and linguistics experts from the Max Planck Institute in Germany undertook the study of the physiological effects of poetry.

Through MRIs, they found that the brain responds to poetry in some of the same places where it responds to music—areas that make meaning, interpret reality, help us relax, and facilitate introspection and the gaining of perspective. "Rhyme and rhythm...intensify emotions at a neurochemical level," the authors say. You know you are experiencing this every time you sing along to the radio.

When we draw, serotonin and endorphins are released into our system, making us feel more generous and open. Our brainwaves change when we engage in this activity, and blood flow increases to the frontal brain areas. Moving in sync with others, for instance when dancing or marching, blends neuro-hormonal, cognitive and perceptual factors to promote bonding with the group.

The arts don't just please us. They are being used to restore mental health. A Boston pediatrician writes prescriptions for joyful engagement, including daily artistic encounters between children and caregivers, based on a child's specific needs. Ashes2Art is a non-profit creative-arts wellness program for first responders and their families. Color therapy reduces anxiety and lifts moods; page 41 tells how.

Susan Magsamen is the founder and director of the International Arts + Mind Lab Center for Applied Neuroaesthetics at Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine. Ivy Ross is the vice president of design for hardware products at Google and a National Endowment for the Arts grant recipient. She was ninth on Fast Company's list of the 100 Most Creative People in Business in 2019. (Fast Company is an American magazine focused on technology, business and design.)

Spring is in the air! As we anticipate a new spring with the return of beautiful leaves and flowers to our community, we are thankful for a relatively mild winter and look forward to all the wonderful community events that open up in the Glen.

The Women's Guild will host our annual Spring Luncheon on Tuesday, April 30th, as we celebrate a Kentucky Derby-themed afternoon. There will be a contest for the best hats as well as a fun horse race, with our Glen men as our jockeys. We encourage you to wear a fabulous Derby Day Hat. Chairperson Debbie Mercurio has a wonderful afternoon planned for us, including a delicious menu of outstanding food by Tuscany Gourmet Market. The cost is $32 per person, and tickets go on sale on Tuesday, April 16th, from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. Don't miss this fun afternoon as we "Run for the Roses"!

We will also install the Women's Guild officers this afternoon. HOA Board member Sandy Lorenzo will honor us as our installing officer. We will also announce our 2024 charities at the meeting. It's definitely a fun-packed afternoon.

In May we host our regular Game Day, and in June we host our annual Ice Cream Game Day. Remember our Game Days are always the third Tuesday of the month unless noted otherwise. As a reminder, everyone is invited to attend our monthly Board meetings at 11:00 a.m. before each Game Day. Come and find out how we operate and get a better understanding of our activities and future plans.

One of our most anticipated events is our annual Welcome Tea for New Residents. 2024 Welcome Tea will be on July 16th, at 7:00 p.m. There is no Game Day in July.

We will once again return to the Meadow Club for our September 17th annual Luncheon and Fashion Show. Please don't hesitate to contact us if you would like to help with this event. More details will follow in future months.

As always, thank you for supporting the efforts of the Women's Guild. Without your support, none of our efforts would succeed, and we are most appreciative.

February 2024 Board Meeting Highlights

February 2, 2024

- Automatic doors were repaired, however, the doors need to be adjusted for proper usage.
- Gutters are being cleaned throughout the community.
- Optimum will begin scheduling and installing fiber to homes once the outside fiber is completed.
- The 2024 Glen Guides have been received from the printer and will be distributed by Block Captain with the February issue of the Gazette.
- The new incumbent cross trainer bike was delivered and installed. We kept the existing bikes since there was enough room for all of them in the gym.
- The issue of Liability Insurance continues to be misunderstood by the club presidents.
- Clarification is necessary to explain the necessity for independent contractors/sole proprietors. A representative from our current insurance company, Hub International, will be scheduled for the next Recreation Council meeting.
- The Social Club will not be responsible for the July 4th Celebration this year. An advertisement will be prepared for The Gazette requesting volunteers to be involved in the planning and execution of the party. There is a possibility that it can be a Multi-Club function with all members. This will be considered and discussed in the next meeting.
- The rules and applications for the Wood Crafting Club will be revisited. It is vital that the buddy system is in place when utilizing power tools. An appointment should be made with Administration so someone is always aware of a members' presence.
- The Clubhouse bathroom updates are in the preparation stage. The fixtures are being ordered, and all parts are being finalized. A start date will be determined when all materials are delivered.
- The current porcelain sinks and brass fixtures from the bathrooms will be cleaned and carefully stored in preparation for a possible Facebook Marketplace sale.

February 16, 2024

- There was 6-8 inches of snow last Wednesday. 100 bags of ice melt and 5 tons of salt were used. Each day the community is checked for icing, and ice melt is used as needed.
- Due to the weight of the snow some tree limbs snapped and are being cleared.
- Gutter cleaning was completed last week for the season.
- A revised "Schedule of Dates for Board Events" was distributed adding April 16th, as the date for the HOA Town Hall Meeting, and a revised date of April 25th, for the Meet Your Candidates Meeting.
- Continued confusion about Insurance Liability issues. A representative from Hub International will attend the next Board Meeting for clarification, and then meet with the Club Presidents at a separate meeting.

- The new incumbent bike is working well, however the older bike from 2006 broke and was removed. The purchase of another new incumbent bike is being considered.
- Preparing Budget & Finance Reports.
- Reviewing budgets for roof repairs and replacements.

SEASON FIVE

Season 5 of the Lap Swimming Club will start soon. The pool will be opening on time and so will begin another fun season staying cool and getting much needed exercise.

Swimming is probably the best low impact exercise you can do and it is a great cardio exercise as well. We meet and swim every Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday morning when we have exclusive access to the lap lanes of the pool from 10 AM when the pool opens until 12 PM noon. Of course swimming can take place any other time during each day providing the lap lanes are available.

Last season we left off having swam as a group, over 4 seasons 1,704 miles. We will pick up from there and who knows how far we can go. There will be a signup sheet available in the hallway near Debbie's office in May. Come on out and join us, let's swim.

Any questions can be directed to

Philip Verderosa cell: 516 241 2204 or

Rosann Kelly at 631 849 1776.

Laughter the best Medicine

Rest Your Mind

I know you have been laying awake at night wondering why baby diapers have brand names such as "Luvs", "Huggies," and "Pampers", while undergarments for old people are called "Depends".

Well here is the low down on the whole thing.

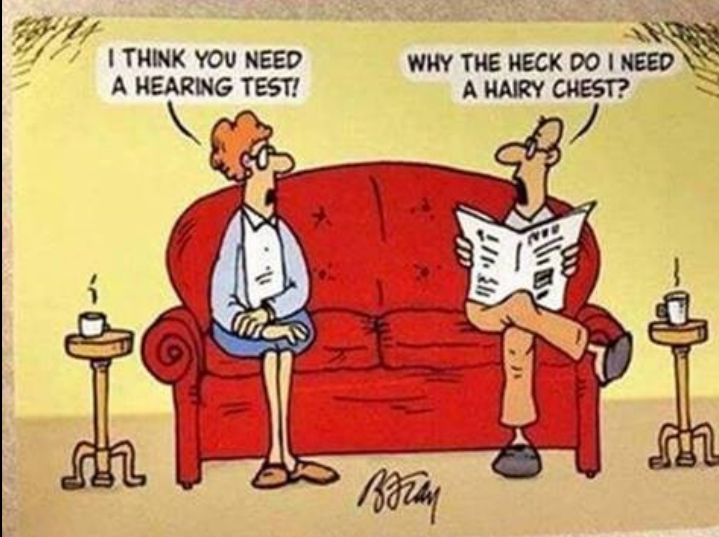

When babies crap in their pants, people are still gonna Luv'em, Hug'em and Pamper' em. When old people crap in their pants, it "Depends" on who's in the will!

Glad I got that straightened out so you can rest your mind.

WHY THE HECK DO I NEED A HAIRY CHEST?

Bless me, Father, for I have sinned. Last night I killed a politician...

Community News

Club House News 2024

We just want to inform the community as to what has been going on in the clubhouse. We have the new fiber connection from Optimum for all of the TVs with brand new Apple boxes to operate them. We had to replace the lights in the Billiard Room because someone broke a couple of the glass shades and we were unable to replace them in kind, because they don't make that type of lighting anymore. We have painted the north hallway and the hallway by the gym to match the lobby area so it all looks cohesive. It Looks great! The Gazette Committee has purchased two new bikes for the gym. One of the old recumbent bikes broke and we were unable to get parts to fix it. The other bike purchased is a recumbent cross trainer, which is like an elliptical but you are using it sitting down. This particular bike are used in physical therapy facilities. The lobby bathrooms will finally be renovated after 30 some years. They will be beautiful when they are done. Lastly "Pear Tree Court " is going to be replaced with beautiful pavers. There will be new tables and chairs with umbrellas and some potted trees.

Hope you enjoy it all!

A Little Trivia Submitted by the Pinzarrones

THE DAILY CHRONICLE

THURSDAY, MARCH 7, 2024

On This Date

321 – Roman Emperor Constantine I declared that the dies solis invicti nati (birthday of the unconquerable sun, or Sun-day) would become a day of rest throughout the Roman Empire.

1876 – Alexander Graham Bell was granted a patent for the telephone. A few months later, he demonstrated the device at the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

1955 – Phyllis Diller made her debut at the Purple Onion nightclub in San Francisco. She was a huge hit and is credited with opening stand-up comedy to women.

Did You Know?

The name Saturday comes from Saturn, the Roman god of plenty. The festival of Saturnalia was a time of revelry and gift-giving. For these reasons, Saturday was considered a day of fun.

Quote of the Day

“Being the eldest brother, he was always the leader of the pack.”

~ Liam Clancy on his brother Paddy

Happy Birthday!

Paddy Clancy (1922–1998) was a prominent Irish folk singer and a member of the Clancy Brothers, a renowned folk music group. Born in Carrick-on-Suir, Ireland, Paddy, along with his brothers, brought traditional Irish folk music to international audiences. With their stirring harmonies and spirited performances of songs, including “The Wild Rover” and “Brennan on the Moor,” the Clancy Brothers and Tommy Makem became a significant force in the folk music revival of the 1950s and ’60s. Clancy had five children.
