Here it is, April 3rd and I'm writing the article for the May Gazette. The weather outside is nasty with rain and strong winds. I hope by the time the May Gazette comes out the weather will be calm and sunny so we can enjoy being outside. May 12th brings us Mother's Day, May 20th Armed Forces Day and May 27th, Memorial Day.

In keeping with what I did last month, I'm repeating a previous article, which I believe is important for everyone to read and understand how we are governed in an HOA.

Many homeowners think that HOA's function by "majority rule". They have no idea how corporations function. They know that General Motors does not call a membership meeting and let the shareholders decide what plants should stay open, or what the newest car model will look like, or who gets hired as CEO. However, they don't accept that model for their HOA even though it is the model they live with.

As a country we are a Constitutional Republic working through a representative government that is based upon a constitution and a rule of law. That constitution can be amended over time with difficulty, and laws are eventually reviewed in light of that constitution.

Your HOA is governed in a similar fashion. There is a set of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions (CC&R's), a set of By-Laws and a few other documents – collectively called the "governing documents". We refer to them as our Offering Plan and Homeowners' Manual. As a condition to purchasing, all homeowners become a member of the Leisure Glen Homeowners' Association and agree to accept all terms as noted in the Leisure Glen Offering Plan and Homeowners' Manual along with any directives issued by the Board of Directors. A document titled "Acceptance of Terms Etc." outlined in the Leisure Glen Offering Plan and Homeowners' Manual is signed by all homeowners upon purchasing their homes in Leisure Glen. By signing this document, all homeowners (members) understand and accept all of the terms as specified in these documents, in the same way the nation's laws based on the Constitution are binding on citizenship.

This is a good system. The membership elects a Board of Directors to represent them and the members of the Board elect the officers of the Board. The Board is charged with carrying out the governance of the Association. Here in The Glen, we do not employ a Property Management Company. The responsibilities of general management and property management falls on the elected Board members.

Happy Mother's Day to all. Have a safe Memorial Day

All About...Mother's Day

by Mary J. Collins

Mother's Day is a holiday honoring motherhood that is observed in different forms throughout the world. In the United States, Mother's Day 2024 falls on Sunday, May 12.

Celebrations of mothers and motherhood can be traced back to the ancient Greeks and Romans, who held festivals in honor of the mother goddesses Rhea and Cybele, however, the clearest modern precedent for Mother's Day is the early Christian festival known as "Mothering Sunday." Once a major tradition in the United Kingdom and parts of Europe, this celebration fell on the fourth Sunday in Lent and was originally seen as a time when the faithful would return to their "mother church"—the main church in the vicinity of their home—for a special service.

Perhaps it's appropriate that the day on which Americans celebrate mothers has an odd set of parents: President Woodrow Wilson is usually seen as the "father" of Mother's Day — for signing a proclamation on May 9, 1914, declaring the second Sunday of May "a public expression of our love and reverence for the mothers of our country" — while copywriter Anna Jarvis is usually seen as the "mother" of Mother's Day, for creating the movement that led to the proclamation. On May 10, 1908, Jarvis sent 500 white carnations to Andrews Methodist Episcopal Church in her hometown of Grafton, West Virginia, in honor of her late mother Ann. That date, on which she also held a celebration in Philadelphia, where she lived at the time, is considered to be America's first Mother's Day celebration.

Although Jarvis was successful in founding the celebration, she soon became resentful of the commercialization of Mother's Day, and it became associated with the phrase "Hallmark holiday." Jarvis argued that people should appreciate and honor their mothers through handwritten letters expressing their love and gratitude, instead of buying gifts and pre-made cards.

Whatever way you choose to celebrate Mother's Day it is worth remembering:

"A mother's love is more beautiful than any fresh flower." (Debasish Mridha)

BOOK NOTES

by Dorothy Scheuer

BETWEEN THE LINES and OFF THE PAGE

by Jodi Picoult and Samantha Van Leer

These two companion books break a lot of rules, so this month's column is breaking one, too. It's the first time an author is coming up a second time (Jodi Picoult, Small Great Things, January 2020 Gazette).

Bestselling novelist Picoult's teenage daughter, Samantha Van Leer, brought her the idea for this story. It was out of Picoult's usual genre, but she agreed to take it on with Van Leer as a true co-writer.

The best stories start with a good "What if."

What if the characters in a book were merely acting the story according to the author's imagination, which might not match with their own? What if, when you closed a book, the characters took a break from the story and fell into their own true personalities and real lives? What if they had to make a mad dash for their places whenever the book was opened again?

And what if one of those character/actors developed a dream of leaving his two-dimensional existence and entering the real world of a Reader?

In one of the threads of Between the Lines (2012, Simon & Schuster), Oliver is a handsome teenage prince who gets his happily ever after on the last page of the story, marrying the beautiful princess he's rescued.

But Oliver isn't happy. He wants more.

In another thread, Delilah is a fifteen-year-old Reader who has found what may or may not be the only copy of Between the Lines that exists. Although the book was intended for a younger audience, Delilah finds herself drawn to Oliver's back story, which has some similarities to hers. Like Oliver, Delilah has lost her father. She feels incomplete. She is awkward and shy, a target for the mean kids. She has a great mom who doesn't completely understand her, she has one really good friend, and she has this fairy tale, which she has read over and over until she's memorized it.

One day, when Delilah opens the book to a page she's looked at dozens of times, she notices something different about it. Along with the usual illustration, there is the faint outline of a something she's never seen there before. She doesn't know it, but the characters had sketched a game board in their downtime that they were not able to fully erase before the book was reopened. "That's ridiculous," her mother insists when Delilah tells her the book has changed on its own.

Is it impossible? Is there a way that a real, albeit fictional, girl from New England can find common ground with an illustrated, albeit self-aware, boy from her favorite book?

Will there be a happy ending? The story continues in the sequel Off the Page (2015, Delacorte)

GARDEN CORNER

Spring has finally arrived and the Garden Club’s Paseo Committee, led by Pat Salino, is eager to work outdoors. Join us any Thursday morning at the clubhouse patio area at 10am(weather permitting) and have fun, meet new friends and take care of the areas around the clubhouse and pool. No prior knowledge is needed. We will guide you.

The rose bushes on the side of the clubhouse by the tennis courts have been pruned and fertilized. Some weeds have been pulled (surprising how many have popped up). The Japanese Garden by the pool will get a layer of new mulch and some plants from the greenery room will moved outside for the summer.

For Long Island (considered Zone 7B), the middle of May is a somewhat safe time when the threat of frost has past. Of course, Mother Nature can always throw a curve ball, so we’ll keep our fingers crossed. We plan to plant annuals in the ground around the clubhouse. And pool area and fill the large outdoor pots. The dish garden planters that sit on the wall of the patio area at the clubhouse will soon be bursting with color.

For those of you that don’t know Doris Herzberg, our gardener extraordinaire, takes care of all our inside plants in the clubhouse year round. They always look perfect, especially, the succulent garden she designed. We certainly do not need any more inside plants, Doris has too many to take care of. Thank you Doris for all that you do to bring the garden inside for all of us to enjoy.

Just wanted to mention a save the date for our annual Garden Club Brunch on July 11th, a flyer will be in the June Gazette. All are welcome!

Happy Gardening!

LEISURE GLEN WOMEN'S GUILD

The Women's Guild has had a very busy month of April. On April 30th we hosted our Annual Spring Luncheon. This year our theme was Kentucky Derby. Unfortunately, I can't comment of the actual luncheon itself because of print deadlines but I can report on the events that took place to coincide with our Kentucky Derby Luncheon.

BOD member Sandy Lorenzo installed our Board of Directors for the 2024-2025 year.

Installed were the following:

Hospitality Chairperson :Nina Schlitz Events Coordinator: Rosalie Russo

Historian: Jean Kopp Secretary: Marie Scala Treasurer: Marie Petrie

2nd Vice President: Loretta Salzman 1st Vice President: Marilyn Peterson

President: Mary Ann Fox.

As of this writing, we are still in need of a Publicity Chairperson. Please step up if you are able to assist us with this important chair.

The Women's Guild also announced their 2024 Charities. They are the Rocky Point Fire Department, Hope House Ministries and the Alzheimer's Association Long Island Chapter. We are honored to represent these wonderful groups and look forward to interacting with them in the coming year.

We will have our open board meeting on May 21st at 11am, followed by Game Day at 12:30pm. On June 18th our open board meeting is at 11am, followed by our Ice Cream Game Day at 12:30!! There will be no Game Day in July since that is the month that the Women's Guild hosts our New Women Welcome Tea to welcome all new women who have moved into the Glen in the past 12 months. Further details will follow as this date get closer! Lastly, we are working hard to put all the finishing touches on our big Fall Luncheon and Fashion Show on September 17th at the Meadow Club in Port Jefferson Station. You definitely don't want to miss this great event so keep your eyes out for further details in the coming month. Enjoy Spring and all the beautiful trees and flowers in the Glen at this special time of the year.

SEASON FIVE

Season 5 of the Lap Swimming Club will start soon. The pool will be opening on time and so will begin another fun season staying cool and getting much needed exercise.

Swimming is probably the best low impact exercise you can do and it is a great cardio exercise as well. We meet and swim every Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday morning when we have exclusive access to the lap lanes of the pool from 10 AM when the pool opens until 12 PM noon. Of course swimming can take place any other time during each day providing the lap lanes are available.

Last season we left off having swam as a group, over 4 seasons 1,704 miles. We will pick up from there and who knows how far we can go. There will be a signup sheet available in the hallway near Debbie's office in May. Come on out and join us, let's swim.

Any questions can be directed to Philip Verderosa cell: 516 241 2204 or

Rosann Kelly at 631 849 1776.
